Croc is from Africa. He is a nice green crocodile. Not big, not bad. He is little, very nice and funny. But he is not happy (счастлив). He has got no friends. He has got a nice mother, she loves him. He has got a clever father, he teaches him very well and loves Croc too. But Croc wants to have many friends and he wants to play with them and to be happy. He says "good-bye" to his family and goes away.

He can see many grey hares. They run and jump and play hopscotch at the sports ground. They are happy friends. But Croc can't run and jump very well, he is a crocodile and his legs (ноги) are not big. He doesn't go to the sports ground. He is very sad. He can see many little green frogs. They are happy and funny. They play a funny game.

— Let's play leap-frog, — the frogs say.

— I'm sorry, but I can't. My legs are not big to jump well, — Croc says.

— What a pity! Good-bye, then!

And the frogs jump away. Croc is sad.

Croc can see a family of brown bears. Two little bears play badminton, their mother and father play tennis. They can't see him; he is not tall (невысокий). He doesn't come up to them. He is sorry he can't play those sports games. He can't walk (ходить) on two legs — he is a crocodile, not a bear. He gets very sad and goes away. He doesn't know what to do. He thinks and thinks and thinks. Then he says:

— I know. Hares play sports-games, frogs play sports-games, brown bears play sports-games. I want to be a great sportsman too. But what can I do? I am not a hare or a frog or a bear.... My legs are not big, I can't walk on two legs, I can't run or jump well. I can't play football or basketball or tennis. How can I be a sportsman? At that moment his nice mother comes up to him and says:

— Let's go to have a swim, Croc!

— But I can't... I can't...

— Oh, yes, you can swim very well. You are a crocodile, you are little but very strong. All crocodiles are nice swimmers.

— Fine! Let's go! I can see many friends in the swimming pool!

— Yes, all animals can swim and they like to go to the swimming pool. But please don't eat (не съешь) them up! They are your friends!
